*The NSF MRI program has a 30% cost sharing requirement. The VCRGE office has a limited amount of funds available and will consider committing a contribution for successful applications of up to 50% of this match, but not more than $500,000, subject to the availability of funds. Please include this page with your Application for Internal Review to verify that a plan for meeting the balance of the cost share requirement has been discussed with the appropriate AD for research.
